Waste Pro converts to cleaner Compressed Natural Gas for trucks used in Palm Coast

Another great stride in environmental stewardship, Waste Pro trucks gathering resident's garbage and recycling items are now being fueled with Compressed Natural Gas (CNG). This fuel burns cleaner than diesel and an added bonus is the dropping of monthly residential solid waste fees in Palm coast from $18.77 per household to $18.62, a savings residents will see in their monthly bill.

CODE ENFORCEMENT

- City staff addressed the Raleigh Drive Neighborhood Watch group, to discuss code violations and the process for remedying them.

PLANNING

Green Team

- This past week a fourth blue heron bird sculpture was added to the previously installed three herons along the shoreline at Waterfront Park. The herons are the creation of artist Anthony Gargiulo (no relation to the Foundation). Donated by the Gargiulo Art Foundation, this most recent bird was in memory of the Gargiulo Art Foundation's 2012 Flagler County Artist of the Year, Richard Schreiner. Richard's prolific body of work spanned 5 decades, beginning in New York City and culminating here in Palm Coast. The previous three birds were donated by brothers Frank and Tom Gargiulo and Arlene Volpe in memory of Frank and Tom's parents, Philomena and Angelo.

On July 20th at 9:00 a.m., all four bird sculptures will be formally dedicated to the City at the park. It is the hope of the Gargiulo Art Foundation that our citizens find their own personal enjoyment in these bronze life-sized wonders, perhaps reminding us of our connectedness with nature, or perhaps, someone special in their life.

Animals ready for homes

252 cats

102 dogs

4 birds

We're going to a Mega-Adoptathon! This super event will be held from July 26 through July 28 at the Fairgrounds in Jacksonville and you are invited. At last year's Mega-Adoptathon, almost 60 FHS cats and dogs found wonderful forever homes and we hope to do even better this year.

Why is this adoption event so special? Well, it's sheer size for one. More than 50 shelters and animal rescue groups will be represented and the organizers expect that more than 1,000 animals will go home to live with some very lucky families. People come from South Georgia to Volusia County and as far west as Levy and Alachua Counties. Literally thousands of folks show up to adopt animals and there are very few "lookers". We were amazed at how many families showed up with cat carriers and leashes, ready to take home a new family member and companion.

We don't often get such a great chance to show off our dogs and cats and let them be seen by this wide audience. With so many people looking, the chances are very good that someone will find their perfect pet at the FHS booth.

Roxie will be going up with us as will Goldie, both sweet older dogs that someone will be happy to take home with them. We're hoping that Rocky, who's been here forever, will be discovered by that active family that can match Rocky's energy. And, of course, we'll be taking up tons of kittens, born during kitten season and lovingly cared for in foster homes just waiting for the chance to go to a forever home.

You can help us with this mammoth undertaking. We need help in bathing and grooming dogs, brushing and soothing cats, packing the goody bags we'll be giving out, transporting and setting up all of our tables, crates, and decorations, and helping us move the animals from our Shelter to the Event.

And, of course, we're always happy to have volunteers at the event, taking care of the animals and helping people find the perfect pet for their families. If you can help, even for a couple of hours, please contact our Volunteer Coordinators, Gary Langley or Michelle Bertsch at 386-445-1814.

Special Announcements

Come on out to our next Yappy Hour at Lagerheads Bar and Grill on July 23rd from 6:00 to 8:00. Lagerheads is on A1A, about 8 miles south of the pier in Flagler Beach. Your $10 donation includes food, drink, music, and doggie games. Bring your dog and your friends and come enjoy the beautiful ocean view at Lagerheads.

Palm Coast Lanes is hosting our Bark and Bowl event on August 11 from 6:00 to 9:00. For bowlers, your $20 donation includes 3 games, shoes, ball, drink, a hot dog and the best of the 80's music. Non-bowlers are also welcome with a $10 donation. This is a very popular event for us and last year we had to turn people away. Don't miss out! Get your tickets at the shelter (1 Shelter Drive in Palm Coast) or online at www.flaglerhumanesociety.org.

Pet of the Week

CHARLIE

Charlie is a wonderful 8 year old Golden/Shep mix that is in need of a retirement home to live out his last few years. He came to the shelter last year when his owner passed away. He was brought in with another dog that passed away from geriatric issues while here at the shelter. So in the span of a month, he lost two families. He was adopted into a loving home but had to be returned because they were moving and could not take him with them. Charlie has once again lost a family. He is desperately hoping for a family that will commit to being his last family. Charlie is housebroken, neutered, and up to date on shots. He gets along with most dogs and loves to be shown attention.

Waste Pro converts to cleaner Compressed Natural Gas for trucks used in Palm Coast

Palm Coast, Fla. – As part of the City of Palm Coast’s commitment to environmental stewardship, the Waste Pro trucks gathering residents’ garbage and recycling items are now being fueled with Compressed Natural Gas (CNG), which burns cleaner than diesel fuel. As an added bonus of the conversion to CNG, the monthly residential solid waste fee in Palm Coast is dropping slightly starting this month – from $18.77 per household to $18.62.

Palm Coast is the third area to utilize Waste Pro’s new Compressed Natural Gas fueling stations. Waste Pro’s other CNG fueling stations are in Fort Pierce and Daytona Beach, and the company plans to open additional facilities in Jacksonville and Tallahassee.

In Palm Coast, 19 Waste Pro trucks equipped with new CNG motors are used to gather trash and recycling materials. Contract stipulations in 2012 between the City and Waste Pro called for increased recycling opportunities, a doorstep hazardous waste program and cleaner truck emissions. All three provisions have now been completed.

Compressed Natural Gas is a fossil fuel substitute for diesel, widely considered a more environmentally clean alternative. The fuel helps operate quieter vehicles with fewer maintenance issues. CNG also costs less than diesel fuel.

“Together, the City of Palm Coast and Waste Pro have worked diligently to provide our residents the cleanest and most cost effective ways to improve our environment through our new solid waste processes,” said Palm Coast Contracts and Risk Manager Dianne Torino, who oversees the City’s contract with Waste Pro. “It’s a win-win for everyone.”
