The Flagler Humane Society was recently awarded a community cat grant to help sterilize community and feral cats in Palm Coast for the cost of the rabies vaccine - $6. Call 445-1814 to make an appointment. Don't miss out on this opportunity to get those neighborhood cats fixed!

Donation Opportunities: The Flagler Humane Society are still collecting shoes. We welcome all shoes regardless of size, type, or condition. Additional drop off locations can be found on the Flagler Humane Society website.

“Doghouse Donation Boxes” are found at all the fire stations in Flagler County. You can drop off donations anytime at your nearest fire station. FHS appreciates all donations, especially those from our Wish List (available at flaglerhumane.org/wish-list). You can also purchase items via the Amazon.com link on the FHS website and ship them directly to the shelter.

Outreach Adoption Events: Don't forget that FHS have volunteers and adoptable pets at the Farmer's Market in Flagler Beach every Friday and at PetSmart in Palm Coast every Saturday and Sunday. If you are interested in volunteering at these events, please contact Katie at kshare@flaglerhumane.org.

We are in need of volunteers for our Walmart Booth on October 17-18. Walmart draws in a fair amount of donations but we need you to help us with this event!!! Save the date for the next Jacksonville Mega Adoption event! Event is October 9-11. We will also be at the Creekside Festival on October 10-11.

Adoption Specials: See the FHS website for upcoming adoption specials.

Upcoming Fundraisers/Events: Save the date for the October Yappy Hour that will be hosted by Turtle Shack on October 26th from 6 pm – 8 pm.

Public Announcements: The Flagler Humane Society has a variety of subsidized spay and neuter programs for members of the community that need to have their pets or community pets sterilized. Please call FHS at 386-445-1814, email info@flaglerhumane.org for questions.

FHS is opening a wellness clinic for minor veterinary issues. Appointments can be made by calling the customer service line at 386-445-1814. Low cost vaccination clinics will still be held on the 1st and 3rd Saturday of every month from 1pm-3pm. No appointments are necessary.

FHS also offers a “Pet Food Pantry” for those that are in need of assistance. Please call to see if you qualify.

To keep up with Flagler Humane Society happenings – visit us on the FHS Facebook/Twitter, our website at www.flaglerhumane.org, or via email at info@flaglerhumane.org.

Pet of the Week

KITTEN

Kitten is a 3 year old spayed female calico cat. She loves to be petted and loved on but she will let you know if you are not done yet with a friendly swat to your hand! She is super cute with a smushy face that you can't help but love. She would love to find a home where she can be the only diva in the house. Come and meet this lovely lady today!

Re: Week in Review

- Temporary modification of the disinfection treatment procedure began on Monday and will continue through October 19th. Customers may notice an increase in the taste and odor of chlorine in their drinking water during this time.
- The average water demand for the week was 6.998 million gallons per day; the average wastewater flow was 7.030 million gallons per day.
- Crews installed 3 new domestic meters, 1 reuse meter and one dewatering system for PEP tank install.
- This week 27 utility customers were shut off for non-payment.
- There were a total of 34 calls after hours.
- This week, there were 5 water main breaks.
- On Sunday, at approximately 10:00 pm, the 6" water main on Fawn Lane split, only a few feet from a similar main break that occurred two weeks ago. This affected 187 homes for 7 hours. This also affected Florida Park Drive, Fern Court, Farraday Lane, and Fanwood Court.
- On Monday, at approximately 8:30 am, the water main split on Colechester Lane affecting 46 customers for 8 hours. This also affected homes on Carollo Court, Cole Way, and Coleridge Court.
- On Tuesday, at approximately 9:00 am, the water main on Collins Lane split affecting 20 homes for 9 hours.
- On Thursday, at 4:00 am, there was a main break on Sesame which did not affect any customers.
- Staff tank trucked Old Kings Road during rain event to keep system pumped down.
- Wastewater crews repaired 1 service lateral, 1 air release valve and 1 force main. They also completed the clean up after the major repair on the gravity sewer main on Persimmon.
- Wastewater crews inspected via CCTV 2,739 feet of gravity sewer, cleaned 1,423 feet of gravity sewer, and inspected 16 manholes. They also inspected and cleaned 4 service laterals.
- Wastewater Maintenance and Collection crews completed 48 pep maintenance and 108 service orders, replaced 18 pep pumps, 21 floats, 9 clean out caps, and 1 pep back lid.
- Water Distribution crews tested and repaired 21 backflow preventers, made 2 water meter repairs/adjustments and repaired 3 water service line leaks.
- Last Friday, the FDEP performed an inspection of Water Treatment Plant #3's new concentrate discharge and Ozone system.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PALM HARBOR GOLF CLUB VOTED BEST GOLF COURSE IN FLAGLER COUNTY

Readers of Flagler/Palm Coast News Tribune Vote on Best in Class

PALM COAST, Fla., Sept. 22, 2015 – Palm Harbor Golf Club in Palm Coast was recently named the Best Golf Course in Flagler County by the readers of the Flagler/Palm Coast News Tribune. This is the sixth year straight Palm Harbor Golf Club has received this honor since reopening in November 2009 after a complete renovation by George Clifton and Clifton Ezell & Clifton Design. Each year, the Flagler/Palm Coast News Tribune provides both print and electronic ballots for its readers to vote for the best in Flagler County in over 144 categories, including Restaurants, Automotive, Entertainment and Home.

“We are thrilled to receive this award from the readers of the News-Tribune,” said Brad Adams, general manager at Palm Harbor. “It is a true tribute to the wonderful job that our staff does each and every day to make the golf experience at Palm Harbor the best in the area year after year.”

Originally designed by Bill Amick, Palm Harbor Golf Club is a public daily fee facility owned by the City of Palm Coast and managed by KemperSports. Palm Harbor Golf Club plays host to the Tri-County Open each year, a 54-hole event which pairs professionals from all over central and northern Florida against the best amateurs in the area. Along with award winning golf and exceptional guest service, Palm Harbor Golf Club also offers incredible cuisine at the clubhouse restaurant, Canfield’s.

For more information about booking your outing or tournament at Palm Harbor Golf Club, or to make a tee time, call 386.986.4653 or visit www.palmharborgolfclub.com. For the complete list of News Tribune award winners, visit their website at www.news-journal.com.
