Palm Coast’s Waterfront Park earns TripAdvisor Certificate of Excellence

Palm Coast – The City of Palm Coast’s popular Waterfront Park, which offers 20 acres of amenities alongside the beautiful Intracoastal Waterway, has received TripAdvisor’s Certificate of Excellence.

Now in its sixth year, the achievement celebrates hospitality businesses and attractions such as parks that have earned great traveler reviews on TripAdvisor over the past year. To qualify, the attraction must maintain an overall TripAdvisor bubble rating of at least four out of five, have a minimum number of reviews and must have been listed on TripAdvisor for at least 12 months.

Certificate of Excellence recipients include accommodations, eateries and attractions located all over the world that have continually delivered a quality customer experience. TripAdvisor is an international travel website.

Waterfront Park’s amenities include family picnic pavilions, a playground, a fishing pier and trails that link to the City’s entire trail system. Visitors will often see manatees and dolphins while strolling along the Intracoastal Waterway Trail. The park has a bicycle maintenance station and is home to the Children’s Memorial Garden and the Flight of Life great blue heron sculptures. Waterfront Park is located at 150 Waterfront Park Drive, off of Colbert Lane south of Palm Coast Parkway.

“The serene beauty of Waterfront Park provides our residents and visitors a peaceful, unique experience as they enjoy the Intracoastal Waterway,” said Parks & Recreation Director Alex Boyer. “Waterfront Park is one of the most popular places for a walk or bike ride in Palm Coast, and it’s a great location for birding and picnicking.”

“We are pleased that park visitors give Waterfront Park such excellent ratings, and we’re honored to receive this TripAdvisor Certificate of Excellence,” Boyer said.
